#3873	Nicola Potato            Order number of pounds.            The Nicola is an oval, smooth-skinned potato with a pale to yellow skin and yellow to deep yellow flesh. Nicola has a glycemic index rating of 58, making it healthy to eat (in modest portions). Nicola was cooked and tested in a Finnish food study, and was found to have the highest levels of phenolic acids, in comparison to all of the 40 types of potatoes in the study. Phenols are aromatic compounds that have powerful antiseptic and antibacterial properties, which may discourage the growth of cancer.            An absolutely delicious and seemingly decadent way to serve Nicola potatoes: Leave the jackets on and add a few tablespoons of Italian mascarpone cheese and Italian flat-leafed parsley.            Mascarpone is like the Grace Kelly of the cream cheese world. It is smooth, and adds a cultured flair and abundant charm to the potatoes making serving Nicola's this way a holiday on its own. Mascarpone can be found at most groceries AND has 1/3 of the calories than butter! Buon Appetito!	All Natural	$1.75/pound
#3872	Red Thumb Fingerling Potatoes            Order number of pounds.            Small potatoes in size. Big in flavor.            Fingerlings are not large. They look more like stubby fingers. Thus the name â fingerling,â and therein lies their unique appeal. Fingerlings are known for their rich flavor, moist, waxy or dry texture and striking colors. Red Thumb fingerling is relatively new and rather rare fingerling potato. It has brilliant-red skin and reddish-pink flesh. It cries out for a place in a gourmet setting. The uniformity of this particular potato makes it a favorite among chefs.            When it comes to flavor, fingerlings take first prize. Fingerlings are smooth, rich, and buttery in flavor. Some varieties taste more nutty or earthy.            Fingerlings are easy to prepare. Fingerlings taste great roasted, steamed, grilled, fried, sautÃ©ed, or boiled. They hold up well, and look great on the plate.            Do not peel them. This helps keep their great flavor intact. Moreover, they will hold their shape and absorb less water. However, if you must, skins come off much easier after potatoes are cooked. These taste great roasted, steamed, boiled, or pan-fried.            Potatoes are an excellent source of fiber and a high in potassium, vitamin C, copper, folic acid, magnesium, and iron. Cold potato salad made with	All Natural	$2.75/pound

	vinaigrette dressing, stored overnight in the fridge, is by far the healthiest way to eat potatoes. Chilling will increase the potatoes' resistant starch content, the acid in the vinaigrette, (citrus juice or vinegar), slows your digestion, allowing your stomach to more completely process the vegetables. This combination of cooled starch and acidic dressing results in a lower glycemic spike, which is healthier for your body. The Italian approach to Potato Salad usually includes green beans and tomato. Ingredients 2 pounds of the tubers cut into chunks or slices,  1 cup diced fresh tomato  1 cup steamed green beans  1/2 cup of olive oil  1/4 cup red vinegar  1 tbsp. chopped fresh parsley  1 tsp. Italian Seasonings  Dash of red pepper flakes  1 clove of chopped garlic (optional) Boil potatoes with the skins for about 20 minutes to preserve most of the nutritional value. Add oil, vinegar, parsley, Italian seasoning, garlic, red pepper flakes, and salt and pepper to bowl and whisk. Add the tomatoes, green beans, and potatoes to mixture. For additional flavor, add capers and olives, plus fresh chopped parsley. A great addition could be a small can of tuna fish, or any other cooked fish leftovers, including shrimp or whitefish.

You will be billed for exact weight (between 8 and 15 lbs)            If you would like to purchase one of our heritage turkeys but have NOT previously reserved one through the co-op on a previous order cycle, this is the right item to place in your shopping cart. Further information on our turkeys can also be found in our general description under Item #923. As in past years cooking suggestions will be included with each turkey. To specify a desired size, first place the turkey into your shopping cart. Then from your cart, please enter in the "notes to producer" section the size range you can accept. The wider the range you enter, the greater the opportunity for us to fulfill your order. If we no longer have any birds in your requested size range, we will cancel the order for you, and notify you so you will have time to look for another source.	All Natural	$2.95/lb
#3207	Free-Range Heritage Turkey - Older Birds, Half Price            4 turkeys available. Order number of turkeys. You will be billed for exact weight (between 24 and 26 lbs)  The remaining birds are in the 24-26 lb range. Each year we renew our breeding stock by saving back some younger birds, and removing some older birds, striving to maintain a mix of both younger and older for the new breeding flock. Historically our family has enjoyed eating these birds throughout the winter season, warming up the home and enjoying the wonderful aroma of a baking turkey. While these older birds aren't as tender as the younger "prime" birds we put on our Thanksgiving table, the flavor is more developed, and they are an excellent value at half the price. Further information on our turkeys can also be found in our general description under Item #923. As in past years cooking suggestions will be included with each turkey. To specify a desired size, first place the turkey into your shopping cart. #3852	Aronia Berry Pepper Appetizers Order number of packages. 6 frozen 1/4 sections of red, yellow or orange sweet peppers, spread with cream cheese. You bake them for 20 minutes in the oven and then pour about 1/2 T of aronia cayenne sauce on top of each piece of pepper and eat them. The aronia cayenne sauce will come in a little container in the package for your peppers. This is your chance to taste the Aronia Berry Cayenne Sauce with out having to buy a whole bottle and to taste it prepared like many people love it. Three 9 x 13 pans were devoured at the Mead Wild Game Feed and 2 pans disappeared at the Super Bowl party. Believe me you won't be disappointed even if you don't normally eat sweet peppers because my husband didn't like peppers but loves the aronia berry pepper appetizers. Oh forgot to say don't let the cayenne in the sauce scare you as they are not really spicy hot...just a hint of heat as I don't eat spicy hot foods at all.	All Natural	$6.50/package

#3410	Whipped Calendula Shea Butter ,2 oz. Jar 3 jars available. Order number of jars. A creamy, unscented, totally natural blend of Calendula Oil and Vitamin E whipped into Pure Raw Unrefined Shea Butter. In my opinion, the best combination there is for natural skin care! Unrefined is better than refined. Refining Shea Butter is usually done by bleaching and deodorizing it, neutralizing it with lye, and over-heating it to high temperatures, loosing most of the beneficial vitamins. Our Calendula Oil is made by infusing Calendula petals in Pure Olive oil in the sun for several weeks. Our whipped Calendula Shea is perfect for hydrating dry skin, wrinkles, and stretch marks. I love it for winter when my skin gets dry. It is super thick and absorbs into the skin and stays put. I have read that is great to condition hair, but have not tried it yet because my hair is to straight and fine and it may weigh it down. This may be good for the frizzies on thick hard to manage curly hair. Ingredients: Raw Shea Butter, Calendula infused Pure Olive Oil and Vitamin E Oil. No fragrance is added, the scent is a natural nutty fragrance.The color is a light Khaki color. Sold in 2 oz. Cosmetic jars with attractive Cobalt Blue lids.	All Natural	$5.99/jar

#2155	Tomato First Prize Hybrid - purchase for May delivery Order number of containers. New for 2010 - Indeterminate - VFFNT - mid season 75 days. We trialed this variety last year and what a find! The best way to describe this tomato is "outstanding". To date we have not seen a "Big Boy" that is this productive over the entire season. The fruits seem to cluster in groups of 4-5 averaging in weight from 10-16oz. Quality is excellent with very meaty dark red interiors which make it an excellent slicer/canner. No doubt First Prize will be a permanent resident in our catalog for many years. It was our most productive tomato for the Plattsmouth Farmers' Market last season. Plants in 4x5 container - 10-14in. in height above container at delivery.	All Natural	$2.75/container
#2497	Winter Squash - Burpee Butterbush- purchase for May delivery Order number of pots. 80 days - a compact highly productive butternut squash. Produces 1 1/2 lb. fruit with delicious, deep reddish orange flesh. It requires only a 4'by 4' planting area. Stores well for fall and winter use. Leave 2" stem attached for storage. Delivered with 3 plants per pot.	All Natural	$2.75/pot
#2158	Zucchini - Burpee's Butterstick Yellow - purchase for May delivery Order number of pots.	All Natural	$2.75/pot
